

Harford County—Maryland's Fine Wines

A Tour of Our Local Wineries

If you're looking for a day filled with wine and good spirits, Harford County is home to three wineries that invite you for a wonderful experience.

Harford Vineyard & Winery

1311 West Jarrettsville Road, Forest Hill, Maryland 21050

Pack a picnic and prepare to hear live music, while sipping their best seller, Peach Kissed 2014—a blend of Vidal grapes and peaches. Taste groups are also offered to try a dozen other Maryland wines. Be sure to check out their fun upcoming events at <https://harfordvineyard.com/wine-tasting-events/>.

Mount Felix Vineyard and Winery

2000 Level Rd, Havre De Grace, MD 21078

Enjoy an unforgettable view overlooking the Chesapeake Bay. Sit back, relax and sip their award winning wine while listening to live music on weekends. Don't miss seeing the 9000 square foot Mount Felix Manor, too. Head to http://mountfelix.com/MountFelixJune2012/Upcoming_Events...html to find some unique upcoming events typically held at Mount Felix, such as "Yoga on the Mount."

Fiore Winery

3026 Whiteford Road, Pylesville, Maryland 21132

La Felicetta vineyard is open every day to offer their experience of almost 20 generations of Italian winemaking. Visit from April to October for access to the tasting room where you can try delicious wine and their Limoncello and flavored moonshiners. Check and plan for the upcoming events on Fiore's calendar at <http://www.fiorewinery.com/news.asp>.

Harford County is home to countless unforgettable sites and fun things to do. You can watch the Aberdeen Ironbirds "play ball" at Ripken Stadium, stroll the beautiful grounds of Ladew Topiary Gardens, go hiking or take a walk through numerous parks, and much more! There is something for everyone to enjoy at every age.
